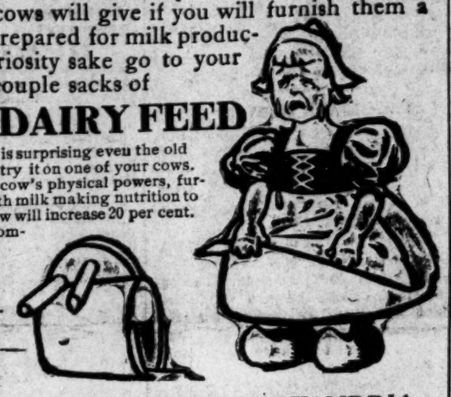
THE LOSS OF MILK through improper feed is enormous. You will be surprised how much more milk your cows will give if you will furnish them a ration especially prepared for milk production. Just for curiosity sake go to your dealer and get a couple sacks of



BADGER DAIRY FEED

—the molasses feed that is surprising even the old time dairy feeders, and try it on one of your cows. This feed will build up a cow's physical powers, furnish her lacteal organs with milk making nutrition to such a degree that her flow will increase 20 per cent. It is simply because it is composed of the best known grains combined with pure molasses making a succulent feed that cows like and produce big results on.

THE PERSONAL TAX DECISION.

In the Law and Chancery Court of Norfolk on Thursday, as stated in yesterday's Gazette, Judge W. M. Martin handed down his decision in the poll tax mandamus case, ruling that the word "personally" in the constitution of Virginia means the bodily presence of a voter in the payment of poll taxes, and directed that the treasurer of the city of Norfolk file a revised list, certifying only to those who have paid their taxes six months prior to the next election in bodily presence. Following notice of appeal Judge Martin suspended judgment, pending another hearing by the State Court of Appeals.

The decision of the court as handed down is as follows:

Section 163 of the constitution of Virginia provides that the General Assembly shall levy a State capitation tax of $1.50 on every male resident of the State not less than twenty-one years of age, except those pensioned by the State for military service, and this State poll tax is required to be paid to the treasurer of the city or county in which the citizen resides.

Under this law persons so assessed with a poll tax may pay it either in person, by going himself to the treasurer and handing him $1.50, or he may send the amount to the treasurer by an agent, and the payment to the treasurer by the agent is a payment by the principal. I know of no other way in which a payment of the poll tax can be made by the person assessed, and such person may adopt either mode of payment. Upon the receipt of the tax by the treasurer in either of the above mentioned ways the tax is paid.

Section 21 of the constitution of Virginia only allows those persons to vote, who, among other conditions therein mentioned, have "personally" paid all State poll taxes assessed or assessable against them within the time mentioned in said section (unless exemplified in section 22), and section 38 of the constitution as recently construed by the Court of Appeals in the case of Tazewell vs. Herman, requires the treasurer to return to the clerk of the court a list of those who have "personally" paid their State poll taxes, within the specified time.

Under this requirement of the Constitution I am of the opinion that the list to be returned should only embrace such persons as have paid to the treasurer "in person" said poll taxes, and that he should not embrace in the list the names of those persons whose poll taxes have been paid to him by a messenger or agent of the party assessed, for there being but two ways for the party to pay this tax—i. e., in person or by agent, and the law requiring the return of a list of those only who have paid "personally"—it seems to me that it excludes from that list those who have paid by agent.

The reasoning of the Court of Appeals in Tazewell vs. Herman sustains, I think, this view of the meaning of the word "personally" as used in section 21 of the Constitution. In that case the court says:

"Where a person is authorized to make a payment and there is nothing requiring that the payment shall be made "personally," he can make it either in person, or through some friend or agent, compensated or uncompensated, upon the familiar principle that acts done by one in behalf of another are valid if ratified either expressedly or by implication," and the court then goes on to decide that in order to entitle a person to vote his poll tax must be personally paid, and states that the evil sought to be remedied was the payment of the poll tax of voters by other persons than themselves. The court nowhere refers to the estate or funds from which the poll tax was paid, but only the person 'by whom' it was paid and there is nothing in its opinion to suggest that it had any such construction of the meaning of word 'personally' in its mind."

Where there is nothing in the context of the law to show the meaning of a particular word used in it, as in the case at bar, it is the duty of the court to give the word "usual" meaning, and it seems to the court that the usual meaning of the word "personally" is "in proper person" or in his own "physical person" and not "from his personal estate," as is claimed by the interveners. If used in the later sense it was surplusage and meaningless to use it in section 21, for the only estate from which any person's own taxes can be required to be paid is his own estate, and the law would have the same meaning whether the word "personally" was used or not used in it.

The question of inconvenience argued by counsel is not one to be decided by the court; that was for the Constitutional Convention to decide; but it may be said that it is no more of a hardship to require the voter to pay his poll taxes in person than it is to require him to register in person or to vote in person, and yet neither of these can he do by agent.

The decision is sweeping in its nature, sustaining every contention of L. W. Tazewell and others, and, it is said, will cut down the registration lists of Norfolk 1,800 votes, if sustained by the upper court. It is declared that the decision will, if sustained, make a sweeping reduction of the vote throughout the state.

It is also known that the decision, carried into effect, will disfranchise hundreds of citizens of the state, as those who paid their taxes by sending in personal checks will be disfanchised. It is a custom of many citizens to pay all taxes through agents representing them, handling their real estate, other property, or conducting their business.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 25, 1908.

LONDON PAPERS have again taken up the hue and cry against apathy in the ranks of the old parties concerning the danger of socialism by publishing the statistics of twelve recent by-elections in north England and Scotland. The totals were: Unionist, 45,771; liberal, 52,897, and socialist-laborite, 33,596. In four other elections there were no liberal candidates, and the combined socialist vote was 21,562, to 20,983 for the unionist candidates. The recent parliamentary elections in Finland, instead of lessening the hold of the socialists, as desired by the czar in dissolving the parliament last March, have increased the plurality of socialist members to 84, the old Finns having 54 and the constitutionalists 50. The socialists are making encroachments in every country in which they are allowed to get a foothold. They are an arrogant set and closely allied with the anarchists and should be given no consideration. In their national convention recently held in this country they nominated for president of the United States a murderer who is serving a long term in the penitentiary. This shows an entire lack of the sense of shame. America is no place for such people for they are bound to give trouble sooner or later.

THE SUMMER of 1908 has been a remarkable one so far as the heat is concerned, the mercury remaining at an unusually high point almost continuously, while the humidity has for weeks at a time been abnormal. Ordinarily, extremely high or low temperatures in this vicinity seldom last more than three or four consecutive days, and are promptly followed by a reaction lasting for about the same length of time. This rule has been painfully disregarded of late. Of the last thirty days or more but few have been cooler than the average for thirty-three years would lead one to expect, several have been at par, so to speak, and most of them have been abnormally hot. Beginning about June 20 there was an unbroken succession of eighteen days, all hotter than the average for the corresponding days since the establishment of the weather service. During the summer there have been a large number of electrical storms which have wrought much damage and caused many deaths.

As a memorial to Joel Chandler Harris a public park for the children of his home city, Atlanta, is suggested. The idea has found favor throughout the south and the name of the prospective playground has already been chosen—Uncle Remus Park. The Atlanta Constitution heads the popular subscription list with a contribution of $100 and in editorially commending the plan says:

In a bit of green and grassy woodland blossoming in spring and summer, spreading nature's choicest fragrance, where the squirrel and the mocking bird and even Brer Rabbit might find a tempting bower, populated by little tots who know or have yet to learn the joys of the old plantation stories—the spirit of Uncle Remus would be there delighting in the joyous picture, while unmindful, as in life, of the brain and toil that made it possible. As it was Mr. Harris's chief delight to give others pleasure while he lived, the most fitting tribute would find expression in that which would mean continuation of his life's greatest purpose.

WASHINGTON is in the throes of an epidemic of petty thievery. The police practically admit their inability to cope with the conditions, which seem to grow steadily worse. Second-story workers and flim-flammers are working with unabated energy, and several cases of housebreaking have been reported to the police. So many people are out of employment, despite the pratings by the republican leaders of flush times that, it is believed, numbers of men and women have been driven to thievery.

GOVERNOR HUGHES, of New York, who said he would not accept the nomination for vice president if he could not get the presidential nomination, has come off his pinnacle and now says he will accept the renomination to the office of governor if the republican party wishes him to do so. Gov. Hughes is not the only Barkis who is willing.

THE grand jury of the hustings court of Richmond yesterday afternoon returned indictments against 163 business and professional men who failed to pay license taxes and have been doing business without license. It is a rare thing for an Alexandria grand jury to take such action as this.

THE proposition of some of the railroad companies to increase the rates on certain classes of freight 10 per cent. to avoid the necessity of reducing wages affords its own comment upon the republican babble of prosperity.

Among the passengers who arrived in New York today on the Lustania were William Randolph Hearst and Mrs. Hearst. "Under no conditions will I be a candidate for the presidency," said Mr. Hearst.

Five Japanese schooners have been discovered sealing in the vicinity of St. Paul, one of the Pribiloff Islands, Alaska. So far as has been reported to this government, the vessels have not come within the prescribed limits, but their actions are being carefully watched in order to prevent the possibility of a recurrence of piracy upon the American seal herd of last summer and the summer before by Japanese, which led to international complications.

It was announced at the War Department today that the president had approved the recommendation for dismissal of the eight West Point cadets who are charged with hazing.

A stinging rebuke to the court martial which tried and acquitted Second Lieutenants John J. Moller and Claire R. Bennett of the Eighth infantry, at Leyte, Philippine Islands, on charges of permitting Filipino prisoners to be tortured by a native presidente, has been administered by President Roosevelt, who takes occasion also to censure the two officers in the most severe terms. The record of the case shows that the two officers substantially admitted their guilt before they were brought to trial, but that the court excluded the admissions from the evidence.

William Plumber, manager of the Maryland lunch room, who was charged with violating the health regulations in the conduct of the restaurant at 1008 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, was acquitted today.

The record of the Health Department shows that seventeen babies died in the District each day during the months of June and July.

It has been ascertained that the boy went early that morning to the general store of Richard Abbitt to sell eggs. The front door was not open, but a side door was ajar, and while pushing against it a trap gun which had been set by the proprietor for sneak thieves was discharged. Most of the contents lodged to Carter's right arm, which was badly shattered.

STRANGE FISH IN KANSAS.

A great many guesses have been made by the residents of Fairbury as to the name of a couple of animals, or fish, whichever they may be, brought in by Gus Bitzer, a Rock Island engineer, when he returned on his run from Belleville, Kan.

In appearance the things resemble a channel catfish, being of the same color and shape, but they have four legs each, and each leg has a foot with five toes. Immediately back of the head three growths appear on each of the animals. The strangers seem to get around every bit as well on dry land as they do in water.

They have been on exhibition all day and hundreds of persons have seen them, but no one has been found who ever had seen anything like them before Bitzer caught them in a pool of water near Belleville yesterday. He says there are many speciments in the Belleville neighborhood, but nobody seems to know what they are. The animals appear to be vicious and snap at anything held near them.

William B. Rayner, son of United States Senator Isidor Rayner, has been placed in an asylum by his father as the result of a consultation yesterday afternoon with several prominent alienists, who advised the senator that, owing to the mental condition of his son, it would be unwise to permit him to remain at liberty.

The steamer Bakkelaget, engaged in the local passenger trade, at Christianis, Norway, was in collision Thursday with the steamer Goteborg. She was cut through amidships and sank in a few moments. From ten to twenty of the Bakkelaget's passengers are believed to have been drowned. Twenty-three of them were rescued by the Goteborg.

By a vote of 74 1-2 to 5 1-2 the delegates in the Seventh Iowa district republican convention yesterday nominated Judge F. Prouty for representative in Congress over J. A. T. Hull, no notice that a nomination had been made at the primary of June 2 having been received by the convention. Capt. Hull contends the convention acted without authority.

John A. Van Rensselaer, who was arrested, charged with sending threatening letters to his mother and later committed to Bellevue Hospital for observation as to his mental condition, was yesterday adjudged sane by Dr. Gregory, who is in charge of that ward at Bellevue. Dr. Gregory said that he found no trace of insanity in the man. He was removed to the Tombs.

Lightning struck the big hotel at Vade Mecum Springs, Stokes county, N. C., early yesterday morning, and started a fire which soon reduced the structure to ashes. Many of the guests narrowly escaped with their lives, and all of them lost their personal effects, the management having to call upon a resort several miles away to furnish wearing apparel for them, as well as food.

An ordinance for the purpose of bonding the city of Annapolis, Md., to the extent of $40,000 for the purpose of accomplishing certain municipal improvements was decisively defeated by a vote of the taxpayers of the city, the election lasting two days. The proposition to bond the city for $30,000 to pay for a new building for the Rescue Hose Company, and for paving and other street improvements was defeated by a vote of 187 to 77.

Lightning and rain, almost a daily accompaniment of the extreme heat during the last week, reached a destructive height during the storms of Thursday night and yesterday in the southern and eastern parts of Pennsylvania and the southern section of New Jersey. Reports received from Berks and Schuylkill counties, and from towns in New Jersey show that thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed and a number of persons were injured by lightning.

Thomas H. Pickford, owner of the Pickford apartment house, at Twentieth and P streets, Washington, the walls of which collapsed June 9 last causing the death of two men employed on the building, was indicted yesterday by the grand jury for manslaughter. The grand jury also jointly indicted Albert S. Reavis, the contractor for the concrete work on the building. The grand jury ignored the charge made by the coroner's jury against Snowden Ashford, inspector of buildings, for the approval of the plans for the building; Harry Blake, the foreman of iron construction, and John Frank Bayne, the brick contractor.

The funeral of Bishop H. C. Potter was held at Christ Church, Cooperstown, N. Y., yesterday. Officiating at the funeral were Rev. Ralph Birdsall, rector of Christ Church; Rev. Percy S. Grant, rector of the Church of Ascension, New York; Canon George William Douglas and Archdeacon George F. Nelson, of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York, together with bishop Olmsted, of Central New York. Following the services a special train bearing the funeral party and the casket left Cooperstown for New York. The body of the bishop was taken to the waiting vault in Trinity cemetery, there to remain until the regular service of interment is held in New York.

Harry K. Thaw is threatened with appendicitis and it is believed that his ailment has so far progressed as to become serious.

Today's Telegraphic News

Gen. Anderson Not a Candidate.

Richmond, July 25.—The Times Dispatch of tomorrow will publish the following:

In response to inquiries from many sources, Attorney General William A. Anderson has given out the following statement as to his candidacy for re-election at the expiration of his present term:

After careful consideration, he has decided not to be a candidate for election a third time to the office he now holds.

He gratefully appreciates the kind consideration which he has received from the people of Virginia in connection with the discharge of the duties of the office during the past seven rather eventful years, and the generous assurance of continued confidence and renewed support which have come to him from every quarter of the State.

It may be fairly assumed, that most of the important cases in which he has been called upon to represent the State, not already decided, will have been disposed of before February 1st, 1910, when his present term of office will end. Every effort is being made to bring the suit with West Virginia to a conclusion at the earliest practicable moment, and it is hoped that a satisfactory end of that very important litigation will have been reached before that date.

However this may be, after eight or nine years of continous public service in the Constitutional Convention, and in the office of attorney-general, he finds that fiduciary, professional and other duties, some of them too long postponed, imperatively require his attention. He will therefore, not offer for re-election.

After the expiration of his term of office, Major Anderson will resume the active practice of his profession, and will open offices in Lexington and Richmond.

The Prince in Quebec.

Quebec, July 25.—Eight British warships, two French and the American battleship New Hampshire] lined up in the St. Lawrence for review by the Prince of Wales was the chief feature of this morning's celebration of the tercentenary celebration of the founding of Quebec. With every mast and yard a-flutter with flags, the warships lay as the prince put out from shore for the review and the cheer from the sailors who thronged their rigging as the launch with the royal pennant shot out out from King's wharf was echoed in greater volume from the thousands of spectators. Such a display of pennants has never before been seen in American waters. As the prince approached the line of sea fighters he was heartily cheered by the immense crowd. The inspection of the fleet took up most of the morning. Every man in Quebec who could beg, borrow, rent or steal a craft was out to witness the battleships on the St. Lawrence. The enthusiasm displayed eclipsed that of the military review of yesterday.

Altar Candles Cause Fire.

Chicago, July 25.—Baby Peter Ross, aged three, is dead today and Mrs. Maria Ross is in a hospital seriously burned as the result of leaving lighted candles on a small altar in her bed room, after she had finished praying. A year ago Mrs. Ross was charged with the murder of her girlhood friend, Mrs. Salvator Mato. It was charged she was infatuated with Mato. She was acquitted last October and her home had a small altar built where she was in the habit of performing daily devotions. On leaving the room yesterday evening she failed to extinguish the candles and a gust of wind blew a lace curtain across the flames. Her three year old child was asleep in the room and was suffocated before the firemen arrived. Mrs. Ross rushed into the burning house in an effort to save the baby, but her clothing caught fire and she was driven back.

The Olympic Games.

London, July 25.—United States 114½, England 66½. This was the score at the wind-up of the Olympic track and field events this afternoon. The last track event was the 1,600 meter relay race and the American quartet made up of William F. Hamilton, N. J. Cartmell, J. B. Taylor and Melvin W. Sheppard, went out and won handily from the Germans and Hungarians.

The American athletes stood firm today in their determination not to enter the re-running of the 400 meter race, in the first running of which J. C. Carpenter, the Cornell man, was unfairly disqualified.

With conditions, therefore, just to his liking, Lieutenant Halswell, the Britisher, went out and ran the event alone, "winning easily," according to the Americans. His time was :50.

$8,400 Alimony

New York, July 25.—Supreme Court Judge Martin J. Keogh, sitting at White Plains, today granted a separation to Mary B. Tower from her husband. Albert E. Tower, a wealthy iron founder of Poughkeepsie. Tower is directed to pay $700 a month alimony during her life. Tower is also directed to pay the costs of the action.

Sensational testimony was given during the trial, when Mrs. Tower said that her husband had spent much of his time while on a cruise on his yacht from Poughkeepsie to Newport, with Mrs. Minnie Weis, a guest. Mrs. Tower said her husband frequently abused her in front of this woman and subjected her to much humiliation.

Lightning Pursues This Man.

Columbus, O., July 25.—Beaumont Johnson, a laborer, has been struck by lightning three times within a few days and still lives, though he is in a hospital. Twelve days ago his house was struck twice, and he was badly shocked. Yesterday morning he took refuge under a tree during a storm, and lightning struck the tree, rendering him unconscious for an hour. Yesterday evening he complained only of a severe headache, and probably will be ready for work in a day or two.

Without Veils.

Berlin, July 25.—The Turkish veil, which for ages has hidden the traditional beauty of the Turkish women, has been torn away in the wreck of the old regime and today, according to dispatches received from Turkey, thousands of unveiled women are parading the streets, rejoicing in the new found freedom. The innovation, the most startling in the Ottoman empire, is being welcomed by the men who cheer the unveiled women at every opportunity.

Political.

Chicago, July 25.—William Jennings Bryan, democratic candidate for president, arrived in Chicago at 9:03 o'clock this morning. He went at once to the Auditorm Annex Hotel to confer with the sub-committee of the national committee which meets at ten o'clock to select a campaign manager.

Bryan's progress across Nebraska and Iowa was a real triumphant procession. Although the candidate retired early last night his train was greeted at every station where it stopped by enthusiastic democrats.

Information from men close to the candidate made it possible that Bryan is in favor of Norman E. Mack of Buffalo for national chairman. Bryan is also said to favor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, as chairman of the finance committee.

Mr. Bryan would not talk politics at length today. He was greeted enthusiastically when he arrived at the Annex Hotel. He went at once into conference with the democratic sub-committee, John W. Kern, vice-presidential candidate, was up early today and preparing for the sub-committee meeting.

A number of democratic notables from the middle west are here to greet Bryan. Among them is Adelai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, former vice-president of the United States. Stevenson will be candidate for the democratic nomination for governor and it is believed he wishes to find out whether Bryan wishes him to run.

Chicago, July 25.—Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the republican national committee, the national committeemen and state chairmen from five middle western states went into conference at the Auditorium Annex Hotel at 10 o'clock today. The republican conference was held in one of the hotel parlors only a few doors from the parlor where the democratic moguls were discussing how to keep Judge Taft out of the White House. At the Hitchcock conference the location of the western headquarters will be decided. Hitchcock also promised to announce the name of the man who will be his first assistant in charge of the western campaign.

Cleveland, O., July 25.—Mr. Taft reached Cleveland on his way to Cincinnati from Oyster Bay and New York at 7:10 a. m. A large group of railroad men crowded about the sleeper "Metropolitan," in which he occupied a stateroom, and part of the little crowd cried "Hurrah for Taft." The candidate was not dressed and did not appear. At Albany Mr. Taft was shown a telegram announcing the fact that Governor Hughes was willing to run again, but said he had no comment to make.

Tore out her Tongue.

Padua, Italy, July 25.—Tearing out his sweetheart's tongue because she had broken her promise to wait until he could marry her brought death today to Francesco Vergani. Maddened by his deed, a crowd tied him to the heels of a horse and he was dragged two miles. Every bone in his body was broken. Eight years ago Vergani fell in love with Eloise Ferrari but he was too poor to marry, so he went away. Two months ago he learned of her marriage and returning to Italy he disguised himself as an Italian dentist and drove to the city where the girl lived. Catching up a pair of forceps he opened the woman's mouth and tore out a big part of her tongue while the crowd and the husband looked on paralyzed with horror. "Tie him to his horse and let it drag him to death" was the cry as the mob of infuriated peasants seized Vergani. In an instant he was overpowered and bound to the heels of the animal which was lashed to a gallop. After a two miles run the horse was stopped and Vergani was loosened. He was crushed almost beyond recognition. It is probable that the object of his vengeance will die.

Niagara's Electricity Cut Off.

Buffalo, July 25.—From 11 o'clock last night until daylight today every source of Niagara Falls electricity which Buffalo has was cut off by the breaking of two heavy power lines carrying 30,000 horse power up the Canadian shore and into Buffalo over the steel towers at Ferry street. The American wheel pits being shut down for repairs, no power was obtainable on this side of the river and in consequence not a wheel was turned by concerns dependent on electricity for power, until the break was repaired. The street railway system was the principal sufferer, the car service being out of commission entirely.

Grain in Her Stomach.

London, July 25.—The sprouting and growth of a grain of cereal in the stomach of a Sheffield girl caused her death, according to the doctors who have just finished their autopsy. The case is one of the most puzzling that British medical authorities have ever known. The autpsy disclosed a fungus growth in the stomach, roots of which had invaded all the surrounding organs. The doctors say that when the cereal, either oats or barley, was eaten what is known as a ray fungus, a tiny vegetable parasite, was growing on it. This parasite was not killed by eating but lodged in the stomach until it grew to the size of a cocoanut.

Sane but Erratic.

New York, July 25.—John A. Rensselaer, whose letter to his mother, Mrs. John King Van Rensselaer of Newport, threatening to "blow her head off," failing the receipt of $5,000 from her caused his arrest, was in Tombs Court today. Young Van Rensselaer was declared sane but erratic by physicians of Bellevue Hospital where he had been sent for observation. He was released in the custody of his counsel, A. Russell Peabody, until next Tuesday to await the filing of a complaint. It is not thought that any will be made.

NO MORE DANDRUFF.

Newbro's Herpicide Destroys the Pestferous Cause of Annoying Dandruff.

Does your head itch? Is your coat or dress full of white flakes after dressing your hair? That's the effect of dandruff. Is your hair thinning? Are you beginning to get bald in spots? Are you already, in fact, rapidly becoming bald? If so, that is the effect of a measly little parasite that burrows in it at the root of the hair, and throws up the scalp in dandruff and eats off the hair at the root. Sciences latest discovery is a destroyer of that pestiferous germ. That destroyer is contained in no other hair preparation on earth but Newbro's Herpicide. Try it, and be convinced. A delightful dressing.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 70

Warnings of Sentence.

Plock, Russian Poland, July 25.—All the officers and soldiers concerned in the trial and execution of the terrorist Witold Habelmann, are receiving warnings of sentences of death by the the Polish revolutionary organization. Heavy guards have been placed over the officers to prevent their assassination but the common soldiers who conducted Habelmann's hanging must take their chances with the terriorists. Habelmann was executed in the prison yard here July 13 for the murder of a photographer named Gavalinski and his wife, who had betrayed the secrets of the revolutionists. The Gavalinskis were Russian spies who gained the confidence of the revolutionists and became active workers in the organization. Habelmann killed the couple in the hospital, where Gavlinski had been taken after being wounded by the territorists.

The body of Miss Geraldine Tumilty of Rochester, N. Y., has been recovered from the Erie canal, into which an automobile in which she was riding last night with E. S. Bartlett, president of the Trebert Gas Engine Company, plunged. Bartlett's body was found later.

A score of guests of the Westfield House at Westfield, near Jamestown, N. Y., barely escaped death today when the structure was burned to the ground. From every window of the three story building guests leaped through flames to the street and five were badly burned. The loss was $10,000.

The Cleveland, O., police have been searching without avail since 2 o'clock this morning for H. W. Gazell, secretary-treasurer of the farmers and merchants banking company, which recently made an assignment. A warrant was sworn out by John Logan, a depositor, charging Gazell with the abstraction of $32,325 from the bank's funds.

Connecticut set New Jersey a pace in the arraigning and sentencing of the absconder who had successfully fought extradition for nearly two years. In less than seventeen hours from the time Walker, the absconding savings bank treasurer, reached Hatford he was being led today from the court room under sentence to serve 20 years in the penitentiary.

Public Service Commissioner Thomas M. Osborne, of Auburn, N. Y., one of the leaders in the home rule democracy movement and who refused to support Bryan in his previous campaigns or Hearst when he ran for governor on the democratic ticket, today in a letter to the National Committeeman Norman Mack announced his intention of supporting Bryan for the presidency.

Declaring that they are in constant danger of assassination by the evicted tenantry, an organization of rich men in Karry and Kings and Queen counties, Ireland, appealed today for troops to protect them. Attempts by the people to drive off the herds of the so-called usurpers in particular have precipitated battles in which nearly a score of herdsmen have been killed.

Testimony that Win, a boy convict from Cobb county, was whipped to death because he had spilled some coffee on a hog at the state prison farm at Milledgeville, Ga., has created a great sensation. The story was told a legislative committee which is investigating the state conviet lease system by a life prisoner who was afterwards released.

Real action is expected in Troy, N. Y., today in the Hazel Drew murder mystery and it is even regarded as likely that an arrest may be made before night. A railroad man, married, who is declared to have used the name of John J. Magner, in conducting an intrigue with the Drew girl, is the latest suspect. This man lives in Troy and is known to have been absent at the time Hazel Drew was slain.

Aroused by the nineteenth bomb throwing incident of the war between gambling factions, the second within the Loop District this week, Inspector Wheeler, of Chicago, ordered the detectives of the Harrison street station to bring in the perpetrators. A hole several feet in diameter was torn in the roof of the building. Thursday night the saloon of James J. Corbett at Van Bureau and State streets was dynamited.

Dr. Carlton Flint, who was much in the newspapers during the Harry Kendall Thaw trial, died today at Seabright, N. J., after being struck and dragged forty feet by an automobile, while he was walking to the suburbs station to take a train to New York. His clothing became entangled in the machinery and when the machine was stopped his body, almost every bone fractured, was pried loose from the cogs.

After fifty years of active service as a telegraph operator, forty years of which have been spent at the key in the Western Union office in Plainfield, N. J., Charles H. Schermerhorn, the oldest active operator in the United States if not in the world, is to be retired August 1 on a pension of $50 per month. During the civil war he was telegraph operator for General Grant at Beverly when the union troops were in camp.

It is reported that the eight West Point cadets dismissed from the academy for hazing will be reinstated. The youngsters, including William Nalle, jr., son of General William Nalle, of Virginia, called on Secretary Wright yesterday afternoon and had a long audience. There is good reason to believe that General Wright, provided President Roosevelt does not interfere, will order the reinstatement of the cadets, not regarding the form of hazing in which they indulged as being of a very serious nature.

The Unwritten Law.

Chicago, July 25.—The "unwritten law" was upheld when William Branitzsky was vindicated by a coroner's jury for killing Louis Sletton while the latter was abusing Mrs. Branitzsky in the presence of her husband. Branitsky is a bedridden invalid, and was fastened in a plaster cast at the time of the tragedy Thursday night.

Branitzsky dictated a statement setting forth the circumstances leading to the shooting. This was read to the coroner's jury which investigated the killing of Sletton and resulted in a verdict of acquittal.

Mrs. Branitzsky, who once left her husband for Sletton, will now devote her attention to her husband.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 25.—The movements were ruled by political anticipations all through the first hour. There was a downward movement of about one point in the more important issues. When the tone appeared weakest reports were circulated that the speech of acceptance by the republican presidential candidate would be construed as a bull factor. This started a brisk movement upward and losses were quickly recovered.

STIT AGAINST I. O. O. F.

Charles Kassabaum, twenty-two years old, has sued the Sheridan Lodge, I. O. O. F., at Noblesville, Ind., and several individuals who assisted in his initiation into the order, for $20,000. He alleges that during his initiation he was "struck upon the left thigh with some sort of metallic instrument which penetrated the flesh to the bone and exploded, the powder and paper with which it was loaded tearing a large hole in his leg." Kassabaum was unconscious for several hours after the accident, and he has not been able to work since on account of the injuries sustained, which are said to be permanent.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100,00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March, 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

DEATH OF SAMUEL DEMENT.

The death at his home on south Fairfax street at 4:30 o'clock yesterday evening of Mr. Samuel H. Dement, whose illness was mentioned in the Gazette a few days ago, brings to a close the life of a quiet, but useful citizen. Unassuming in his general demeanor he lived beloved by all with whom he came in contact and died respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was an honest, upright citizen, whose death is regretted by a host of friends. Mr. Dement, who was 53 years old, had been in ill health for almost two years; he bore his troubles with fortitude and was perfectly resigned when death came. He was the son of the late Noble Dement, whom many of the older citizens remember. His funeral will take place from his sister's residence, 422 south Fairfax street, tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The pallbearers will be Messrs. J. P. Steiner, Wm. J. Wilkinson, Machen Hammill, F. M. Hamilton, Oscar F. Phillips and Edwin Arnold—all members of the cigar making fraternity, in which business the deceased had been engaged since boyhood. Mr. Dement was a native of Charles county, Md., and, until compelled to relinquish his labors by sickness, was in the employ of Hamilton & Co., cigar manufacturers. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter of Grace Church.

EPISCOPAL CLERGYMAN DEAD.

Rev. David Funston Ward, an Episcopal clergyman, well known in Virginia and Maryland, died at Rockville last night, aged 45. Mr. Ward, on account of his illness, had been for sometime incapacitated for active service. Rev. Mr. Ward was a native of Winchester, and was a brother of Dr. Julian Ward and State Senator Robert Ward, of that town. His wife, who also survives him, was Miss Corrie Ewing, of this city. He was rector of churches in Richmond county, Williamsport, Pa., and Chicago. The body will be taken to Winchester for interment.

HORSE FRACTURES BOY'S SKULL.

Oliver Richardson, five years of age, whose parents reside in Washington, was kicked by a horse and seriously injured while visiting his grandmother at Rosslyn, Va., last evening. The boy was playing about the horse, when the animal suddenly turned and kicked him, inflicting a severe cut over his right eye and fracturing his skull. The patient was removed to the Georgetown University Hospital and given treatment. It was reported this morning that there had been an improvement in the condition of the lad.

Unwise Combination.

To the mind of Mrs. Abigail Jennings there was a sort of disloyalty in admitting to any outsider that a native of Willowby could be really eccentric. As for anything beyond eccentricity, Mrs. Jennings would never have admitted it, even in the case of Miss Rachel Gregg, who was frankly called crazy by the summer visitors.

"Now, Mrs. Jennings," said one of the boarders, "do you really mean that you've never known Miss Gregg to do anything that you'd call crazy?"

"No, I haven't," said Mrs. Jennings, with a firm and unyielding expression about her prominent chin.

"Why, what do you think of her sending that bag of eggs over to the Corners to Mrs. Cole right in the box with her laundry work and never telling the stage driver and letting him throw the box right off?" inquired the summer boarder. "Mrs. Cole says there's one shirt waist she'll never be able to wear again."

"Well," said Mrs. Jennings calmly, "I should say about that as I have about a number of little things Rachel does and has done. She may lack in wisdom and forethought now and again. But, then, who doesn't, I'd like to know?"—Youth's Companion.

Showing Our Monkey Blood.

The batsman, congratulated on his home run, slapped himself proudly on the chest and began to boast of still finer home runs that he had made in the past.

"Did you see that gesture, the stricken breast?" said an ethnologist of Harvard. "Whenever we make that gesture in our vanity we prove the Darwinian theory up to the hilt.

"You know the gorilla. Kipling and Du Chaillu describe him—an enormous ape that in his indomitable bravado beats his breast with a sound like the rolling of the muffled drums of Memorial day.

"As big as a bull, as swift as a cat, as powerful as an elephant, the gorilla believes himself unconquerable, and in the vain glory of that belief he inflates his lungs and beats his swollen breast till the jungle rings like a gong.

"We in our moments of foolish and excessive vanity inflate our lungs and slap our swollen breasts.

"Thus, alas, we show the monkey blood in us."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Too Much Music.

"I like churches to provide fine music at all times," said a prominent clergyman, "but there are cases on record where the music has been given too prominent a place.

"An eloquent brother divine from South Carolina once told me that going to preach at a strange church he was taken aside by a deacon, who whispered:

"'Beg pardon, sir, but I must ask you not to preach longer than ten or twelve minutes. It's the music that the people come here for.'

"That was wrong. But worse still was the case of a supply preacher in a church famous for its authems and choruses. The stranger, not noticing the scraping and tuning of fiddles, rose and began to preach, when the choir leader jumped up and shouted angrily to him from the choir loft at the other end of the church:

"'Sit down, man! When it's your turn we'll tell you.'"

Joys of the Interne.

"If you could see some of the vicious home treatment applied to cuts," the young interne at Bellevue said, "you'd wonder at the comparatively few cases of tetanus. If a playful mongrel pup snaps at you, the east side knows that the only thing to do is to put some of the hair of the dog that did the biting—the hair must be from that particular dog—into the cut. They come with incisions reeking with all the filth imaginable—the dirtiest cobwebs from the garret, for instance, which are even more popular as a poultice than those made of a chew of tobacco. Two boys came in recently the same day with cuts to which cigar butts had been bound down because, they explained, they don't chew tobacco. You can't convince the east side that it's wrong. Don't waste time, but clean the wound scientifically, pray for good luck and yell 'Next!'"—New York Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.

English as Sung.

I live opposite to a school where music is carefully and constantly taught. The children have acquired the difficult art of dropping a semitone a minute. But the accent employed is even more interesting than the tone system. Here is a favorite school song:

Flahrs, luvly flahrs, in a garden yeh may see,
The rowses there with their reuby lip,
Penks the 'unny by loves teh sip,
Teulips, teulips, gy as a butterfly's wing,
Merrygolds rich as the crahn of a king,
Rich as the crahn of a king,
But none seh fair teh me,
None seh fair teh me,
As these wildwood flahrs,
Sweet wild flahrs.
